

I would hope that you folks will not be bought out by the bankers association to change the rules for Wisconsin NO CALL list. If the rules are made easier, it will open the gates for other groups to have their way. To say the least, even the political and charitable calls are very annoying. The calls are right at the time for evening meals and news broadcasts.